Camosun College	No	No	Web-based T2202A is planned for 2006-2007.
Capilano College	Yes	Yes
Carleton University	Yes	Yes	As soon as a Carleton student has any amount owing on their student account, the RO will NOT issue any verification of enrolment information, such as a Certificate of Enrolment or a transcript. However, we will complete their RESP form or Third Party Form. The reason for this is that often the reason they have a balance owing is because they need to extract the funds from an RESP before they can pay them! It is not part of the RESP process to check their student account balance.
Columbia College	No	No	No, unless there are extenuating circumstances.
Douglas College	Yes	No	We will not provide a student with a verification of enrolment for if the student owes fees to the institution. However, if the student is sponsored or has a student loan yet to arrive, then we will provide them with the letter or complete any forms supplied by the student.

The King's University College	No	No	However, that this creates a conundrum in that students need us to complete some of these to get funding to pay their fees...but we won't because they owe fees. Therefore, I am regularly granting exceptions to our regulation in cases where the point of the verification is to receive funding. Working on providing Web-based T2202As.
Thompson River University	No	Yes
Toronto, University of	Yes	Yes	We will provide the RESP certification provided students are registered -- which may mean they have paid all or some of their fees, or have had them deferred while awaiting OSAP, scholarships or other external support.
